

The One True Religion

I believe in one God who is within all creation.
God is within all things and all people.

Since God is within all people no person is without God.
Since God is within each person, no person can be or will be denied God.

Each person is entitled to know God
according to their own personal preference.
Each person's path is no less or more valid than another's path.

The only religion which can embrace these tenets is the religion which accepts all men and all paths equally.

For God created a path
for each soul to follow.
To judge another's path is to judge God.

For God gave each man Himself to find.
Each man must find his path to find his God.

For each path is sacred because each path
is created by God.
To judge or condemn another man's path
is therefore sacrilegious.

Because each man's path
is created by God,
the number of religions

on this earth is equal to the number of people on this earth.
